Negro Mobbed in Ohio.

Springfield, O., March 8.—Richard Dixon, a negro, who fatally shot Policeman Charles Collins Sunday, was taken from the county jail at this place tonight by a mob of 800 men and shot to death in the jailyard. Later the body was hung in to a telegraph pole at the corner of Main street and Fountain avenue, and the mob spent half an hour riddling the body with bullets from hundreds of revolvers. Collins was shot by Dixon Sunday morning, while the latter was in his room in a hotel here removing his baggage. He had decided to quit the place, and, fearing trouble with Anna Corbin, a woman with whom he was acquainted, Dixon asked Collins to go to the hotel with him. While in his room Dixon and Miss Corbin quarreled, and Dixon is said to have shot her in the breast. The policeman then attempted to arrest Dixon, when the latter fired into the officer's body, inflicting fatal wounds.

Only a Minnow.

A dispatch from Ilwaco, Wash., Monday, says:

"Perhaps the largest sturgeon ever taken from the waters of the Columbia was caught near Puget Island by a fisherman named Andrew Anderson. The monster weighed 375 pounds, and old fishermen say it is the largest ever captured in the river. It has been purchased by S. Schmidt & Co., of Astoria, who will send it to the St. Louis exposition."

That wouldn't make bait for some of the old Columbia river sturgeon. Many have been caught at The Dalles weighing from 1000 to 1500 pounds, and at Vancouver one was caught by getting tangled in a gill-net that weighed over 1800 pounds.

DIED.

WOLFF.—At the family home, corner of 24th and Oak streets, Salem, Oregon, Tuesday, March 8, 1904, at 5 a. m., Miss Louisa Wolff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wolff, aged almost 21 years, of typhoid fever, after an illness of three weeks.

Deceased was a bright young woman, well-known in this city. She was born near Sublimity, and came with her parents, when four years old, to this city, where she has been ever since. She was educated in the public schools, and for the past five years has been employed as a weaver in the woolen mills. She was a member of of Viola lodge No. 88, Degree of Honor, and Silver Bell Circle No. 43, Women of Woodcraft. Funeral services will be held at St. Joseph's Catholic church at 5 o'clock, and interment will be had in the Catholic cemetery.
